Option to Travel by Train from Bangkok to Pak Chong:

An alternate way to travel to Pak Chong from Bangkok is by train. Be prepared though- these local trains are sometimes delayed a bit- so keep breathing and smiling on the journey! Enjoy the countryside view off the highways and the traffic!

Hua Lampong Railway Station is located in Central Bangkok and is accessible by MRT Line.

The train also stops at the old Don Mueang Airport so it is very convenient for those flying into Don Mueang, to simply board the train from there and avoid having to travel into the city. The train platform is accessible by a walkway from the terminal which also connects to the Amari Airport Hotel.

From Pak Chong Train Station, there are usually public songtaew taxis which can be hired to bring you to Thai Plum Village. Cost of one way drop off is 500 Baht which can be shared by other travelers. Drive is approx. 45 minutes.

Tel number of a local taxi driver in Pak Chong Khun (Mr.) Paisan: 085-772-4519 or have the Information Desk at the Railway station assist to find a songtaew taxi.

Note trains from Pak Chong continue to parts of Northeastern Thailand.
